
ICAP Reading Log

1. School textbooks or any assigned reading for a class do not qualify.
2. Books must be parent approved and be at student's ability level or above to receive full dollar value. Books at a lower reading level receive half the dollar value (this includes books read to younger siblings.
3. Classics (by parent judgment), autobiographies, biographies, and missionary books are valued at $10.00 each.
4. Bible reading – Student must read an entire book of the Bible for credit of $1.00 per chapter.
5. Historical Fiction books are valued at $5.00 each.
6. Fiction books are worth $.01/page (unless they qualify as classics).
7. Non-fiction books that are actually read are worth $.05/page.
8. Family Read-Aloud books receive full value for each student in the family.

Name: _____ School Year/ Semester: _____

BOOK TITLE	ICAP BUCKS EARNED

Total: _____

My child has read the above books in accordance with the above rules.

Parent Signature: _____